CHAIRMAN'S NOTES

Did you know that the tax on the price of your pint in the UK is more than Germany, Spain, the Czech Republic, Portugal, Austria, and Belgium combined? This is a jaw dropping statistic which came earlier this year from the British Beer and Pub Association. According to the BBPA, 54.2p per pint of a 5% ABV beer is duty. Additionally, there is V.A.T. levied at 20% at the point of sale. So anyone who tells you that alcohol taxes in this country are low is a liar.

Taxes are not the only determinant of the price in your pub. 'Location, Location, Location' is the title of a TV programme about house prices. You could equally apply this to the price of your pint as the average varies so much around the country, and sometimes even within the same town or city. According to an article in the Daily Telegraph published on 2 September 2023, Consett in County Durham boasts the cheapest average beer price of £2.65 per pint. Other cheap places to drink are Blaydon and Ferryhill, both also in the North East, and Dalton-In-Furness in Cumbria. The Central London average is £6.63. Provincial airport hotels are even dearer, I paid £6.95 at a hotel by East Midlands Airport. London boasts, (if that is the right word) eight of the ten most expensive districts in which to drink in the UK. The other two were Great Missenden in Buckinghamshire, and Virginia Water in Surrey, two of the most affluent areas in the country. There are various reasons for the disparity.

The cost of business in terms of rents, rates, and staff wages is much higher in the capital. It's also probably fair to say that people living and working in London are more willing to pay the eye-watering prices, whereas those living further north are more demanding about value for money.

The price of your pint has almost doubled in 15 years, from an average of £2.30 in 2008, to an average of £4.30 this summer according to the hospitality trade body CGA. Had beer simply risen with inflation since 2008, the price of your pint would have been £3.55.

However, despite having some of the most highly taxed beer in the world, there are jurisdictions where a pint is considerably more expensive. According to the price comparison website finder.com Doha in Qatar boasts the most expensive pint in the world at £10.47 with Abu Dhabi and Muscat close behind. Predictably enough the most expensive European pint is found in Reykjavik where the average price is £7.81, closely followed by Oslo.

Readers may not be aware that Iceland introduced prohibition in 1915 and beer was only re-legalised in 1989, which may account for the highest prices. Oddly enough wine and spirits were made available again much earlier. Other than Bulgaria, the cheapest prices are found in places like Belarus and Moldova which are not anyone's idea of holiday destinations.

According to finder.com the global average in £2.60, so while the UK may be an outlier in terms of tax, its cheapest pub prices are around the global average.

So now you know!

Summer Pub of the Season

Zapato Brewery Tap West Slaithwaite

Situated in the historic former mill building Holme Mills next to Dark Woods coffee Roasters and alongside the Huddersfield Narrow Canal and River Colne, Zapato Brewery Tap has won the Huddersfield Camra Summer Pub of the Season award. Zapato is a modern, comfortable bar with a welcoming feel. There are two changing cask beers available as well as numerous keg, bottled and canned beers covering almost all beer styles. Wine, spirits, tea and speciality coffee, cider, natural wine, soft drinks, and cocktails are all available, along with cakes and bakes.

Indoors there's a variety of seating and a real fire for the colder months, whilst outside there's a partly covered seating area. This is surrounded by trees and with the sounds of the nearby river and canal, it makes for a very pleasant environment to enjoy a beer.

Zapato has become a popular venue throughout the week and is welcoming to everyone including families and walkers and their dogs.

Street food vendors visit at weekends offering a variety of cuisines and adding to popularity of the place, summer weekends being especially busy.

Opening times for Autumn and Winter are Tuesday to Sunday from 12, closing is at 2200 except for Tuesday and Sunday when it is 2000.

See zapatobrewing.com for more information.

Buses 184 and 185 from Huddersfield to Linthwaite, Slaithwaite, Marsden and Oldham stop nearby on Manchester Road more importantly for beer drinkers, there is a special offer on cask beers, they are all £2.50 per pint all day. The offer is only applicable to pint measures though.

Opening times are from 1500 – 2300 Tuesday – Thursday, 1300 – 2300 Friday, Noon – Midnight Saturday and 1400 – 2200 on Sundays.

Williams is a short walk from bus and rail stations.

Autumn Pub of the Season

Williams Beer & Gin Huddersfield

Situated on John William Street, William's Beer and Gin has been voted Autumn Pub of the Season by Huddersfield CAMRA members. Williams is a modern bar with a contemporary feel. It is deceptively long inside with a marble topped wooden bar on the left which has six handpumps.

There is a handpump dedicated to Timothy Taylor's beers and up to five cask beers are available from mainly Yorkshire breweries.

A dark beer is almost always available and there are also ten keg beers. Unsurprisingly, there are also an extensive range of gins on offer too. Wednesday night is quiz night but,

Recent years have seen Halifax become a great destination for real ale drinkers with and bars including the Grayston Unity, Victorian Craft Beer Café and Meandering Bear opening alongside long established pubs such as the Three Pigeons. But, Halifax has much more to offer real ale fans than town centre pubs. Just outside the town centre there are four pubs that are well worth a visit and together make a great pub crawl.

Big Six Inn

There are number of bus services between Huddersfield and Halifax but the 503 is the most frequent and the most direct. For this crawl, alight from the 503 on Skircoat Road, opposite the First bus depot and walk along Free School Lane (Tesco local is on the corner). A 15 minute walk passed Savile Park brings you to a recreation ground on the right. Turn right on to an unadopted road with terraced houses on the right. The third street is Horsfall Street and here is one of Halifax's best kept secrets – the Big Six Inn. A terraced local, it comprises a central corridor with two partly opened up rooms, plus a bar lounge and an excellent snug. Features include fitted seating, wood panelling and a fine bar back fitting. There is a lovely garden for fine summer evenings. There is no TV or juke box and on the evening of my visit the pub was busy, buzzing with all sorts of conversations. There are five real ales on offer and a real cider. The ales were Old Mill Bitter, Vocation Bread and Butter, Gun Brewery Milk Stout, Small World Secret and Acorn Moutre IPA. The Bread and Butter was tried and was very good.

Wainhouse Tavern

On leaving the Big 6, it is approximately ten minutes to the next pub. Retrace your steps to Free School Lane and then turn right and then left passed Crossley Heath School on to Spring Edge, then cross Skircoat Moor Road on to Wakefield Gate. Carry on past the houses, Wakefield Gate turns right and drops down. It is a cobbled road and quite steep. At the bottom of Wakefield Gate, cross over to Upper Washer Lane. This area is full of interest especially the different architectural features of the terraced houses and the way they have been built on such a slope. It doesn't look as though much has changed since they were built. Rising up behind the houses is the Wainhouse Tower. At 275 feet it is the tallest structure in Calderdale and the tallest folly in the world. It was built between 1871 and 1875 and is open to visitors on occasional weekends throughout the year. The next pub, the Wainhouse Tavern, is along Upper Washer Lane, on the right. The pub is an impressive looking substantial building, built in 1877 as a home for industrialist JE Wainhouse. There are bars on two levels and five handpumps in total. Beers available were Wainhouse Bitter, Marston's 61" Deep, Rat Brewery Rat in Black, Nightjar At One with Citra and Fuzzy Duck Golden Cascade. The Rat in Black was tried and was excellent.

Cross Keys

A bus ride now to the next pub. Leave the Wainhouse Tavern and turn right on to Darcey Hey Lane. Continue up the lane to Rochdale Road where there is a bus stop across the road. There are frequent buses to Halifax town Centre from this stop in the daytime, less frequent in the evenings. Catch a bus from here to Halifax town centre and change on to a 542 to Siddal. It's approximately a 10 minute ride to Siddal New Road. The Cross Keys is on the left and the bus stop just passed it. Another historic pub, dating from the C17th, it re-opened in 2012 as a freehouse. It features an inglenook fireplace and traditional layout. Eight handpumps were serving Neepsend Blonde, Neepsend Donati, Thirst Class Green Bullet, Wychwood Hobgoblin, Goose Eye Chinook, Elland Abello Bay Pale, Stod Fold Imperial Stout and a beer from Hop Studio. The Donati was tried and was good. It's just a short walk to the final pub. Leave the Cross Keys and cross Siddal New Road and head down Whitegate Road into another area rich in industrial heritage. Cross Hebble Brook and turn left, the Shears Inn is just in front of you. The pub was very busy when I called, mainly with diners. The Shears has an extensive menu which is available all day and the food looks mouth-watering. Drinkers are not forgotten though with six handpumps serving three Taylors beers, Boltmaker, Knowle Spring and Landlord and also available were Jennings Golden Host, Moorhouses White Witch and Wychwood Hobgoblin Gold.

Shear's Inn

From the Shears Inn go straight ahead up Boys Lane with the mill on the left and follow it round to join Shaw Hill. A little further along on the left is the First Bus Elmwood depot and we are back where we started. A little further on, just passed Spring Hall, is the bus stop for the 503 back to Huddersfield.

An appeal to all members in the Huddersfield District!

Pub surveys are our means of keeping the information in What Pub up to date - and, right now, many of our surveys are out of date. It's a really easy job to amend a pub survey; all we need are people to go into pubs and change the information if necessary. So, we're asking for your help, as CAMRA members, to get our What Pub descriptions up to date, so that members from any area can easily decide which pubs to visit and which of the excellent Huddersfield area ales to appreciate! If you feel you can help, please contact the Pubs Officer (for a survey sheet) at: pubsofficer@huddscamra.org.uk

Beer Festival Round Up

Although Huddersfield CAMRA no longer organises a beer festival, there are plenty of festivals around the Huddersfield area and wider region. Autumn is a popular time of year for beer festivals, and these are four recent ones. Tokens have long overtaken cash as the main payment for beer at festivals and this trend continues with some festivals not accepting cash at all, even as payment for tokens. Readers may be relieved to hear that the pie, in various forms, seems to remain the most popular food at beer festivals.

York CAMRA Beer Festival

York CAMRA Beer Festival has been held in various venues over the years, The Assembly Rooms, The De Grey Rooms, Priory Street Centre and more recently, on the Knavesmire. This year the festival moved to another new home, St Lawrence Church. Churches are becoming popular venues for beer festivals, and they tend to work well and provide atmospheric venues, not least because many churches can be kept at a low temperature which is good for the beer! Over 200 beers were available including a few keg and key keg beers mainly from Europe. Cask beers came from all across England and covered pretty much all beer types. The weather was good and although there was limited seating in the church itself there was seating outside, both on the grass and in a small marquee. There was a separate bar for cider in an outbuilding which contained further seating. The festival was entirely card only, with card readers behind the bars and on entry. A good festival with a good choice of beers which is well worth visiting but be prepared to spend most of the time standing up, especially if it's a wet day.

Calderdale CAMRA Beer & Cider Festival

Calderdale CAMRA Beer & Cider Festival is another festival that has moved about a bit but has now settled in the basement of the Viaduct Theatre, Dean Clough. The Viaduct Theatre basement is an unusual, historic industrial venue which works well as a beer festival venue. There was smaller range of beers than York, but it was a more diverse range, including 20 beers served from wooden casks and a variety of speciality beers. All breweries in the Calderdale area were represented with the remaining beers coming from breweries in the rest of Yorkshire, Greater Manchester, and Lancashire, demonstrating the wide variety and quality of beers produced locally. All beer styles were represented but there was an especially good selection of dark beers. Beers are bought with tokens; token sheets can be bought with cash or card. The festival programme was also a great guide to real ale in the area with many adverts for local real ale pubs and breweries. The programme also showcased the goings-on in Calderdale CAMRA who look to be a lively and outgoing Branch. A brilliant festival which is well worth adding to your beer festival diary.

Charity beer festivals are very popular, and a couple of recent ones were Colne Valley Scouts Beer Festival in Milnsbridge and Elland Beer Festival, both very good and well worth supporting.

The Colne Valley Scouts Festival

The Colne Valley Scouts Festival was held in the Scout Hall on Manchester Road, Milnsbridge and had eleven beers from local breweries, Empire, Linfit, Lords, Magic Rock, Mallinson's, Milltown, Ossett, Riverhead, Three Fiends and Zapato. One dark beer was available, Magic Rock Chocolate Stout, one of the Zapato beers was a Berliner Weisse and the Mallinson's beer was Hallertau Blanc, a German style blonde beer. So, although the beer list was short, it demonstrated that there is great variety available locally! Again, tokens were used, and these were purchased individually.

The festival is one of the main fund raising events for the Scouts. The scout hut was suitably set out for the event with tables and chairs and made for a comfortable environment to enjoy a beer.

Elland Beer Festival

Elland Beer Festival is held in aid of the Yorkshire Air Ambulance and other unstated local charities.

A very popular event, the venue the All Saints Church Hall on Savile Road, was very busy on the Friday teatime when I visited. It was standing room only in the hall with some festivalgoers spilling outside. Twenty beers were available, ten from local breweries and ten from further afield. Beers were mainly pale but there was Harrogate Best Bitter, a proper malty amber bitter, Coach House Gunpowder Mild, Durham Dark Angel Stout and of course the award winning 1872 Porter from Elland Brewery. All beers were £3 per pint and £1.50 per half, individual tokens were £1.50 and purchased on entry.

The festival is clearly a well-supported event in Elland's calendar and deserves to be.

The Nook Brewhouse is a bespoke purpose built brewery and is the next chapter for the Nook's real ale legacy. It stands on the site of a previous brewery dating back to the 18th century and has been designed to make the most of the natural and local resources wherever possible; gravity to aid the brewing process, warm energy from one brew to heat the next and the cool cellar which is built deep below the water line of the River Ribble and is perfect for conditioning our ales.

It produces nearly 5000 pints of award winning "ales with Yorkshire Character" every week, much of which is enjoyed in The Nook. The Nook Brewhouse's cask conditioned ales can also be found in pubs and bars and at beer festivals across the North of England and beyond.

Our Award winning ales are inspired by Yorkshire characters offer something for everybody ... but don't worry you don't have to be from Yorkshire to enjoy them too.

Pondering in Preston

The day started with the two of us catching the 503 bus to Halifax to connect with the 10.30am train to Preston (via a hot chocolate in the Barum Top). Carol wasn't happy about me whining on about my 5 o'clock shadow at 10am lol.

A fairly short walk took us to the Black Horse to meet Adrian Smith who is the editor of the excellent Ale Cry magazine for the area. The pub is superb and quite rightly Central Lancs pub of the year. Beers were Titanic Godiva, Hop Back Crop Circle and Hawkshead Krpan, all the beers in fabulous form. Our esteemed guide then took the two of us to the excellent Winckley Street ale house where the beers were again on top form.

Carol and Adrian both had the North Riding Brewery Brazil Nut Porter and was decreed fabulous, I had Stardust Easy Pale also very good. It was time for some food at this point and the Winckley provided on that front with superb brisket, chips and cheese sauce. Nicely filled up the Chair House Brewery was next up, a little micropub in a garage. 12 keg beers and 2 real ales on there which I have to admit, we forgot to put the names of the beers down but they were more than satisfactory. Adrian did have to depart a little early so we were left to our own devices and next up was the Greyfriar Wetherspoons, Hawkshead and Settle were had and were ok but no more than that.

Guild Ale House was another of Preston's real ale establishments we called into, a medium sized pub with 7 handpulls on, most of the beers were from Huddersfield/Halifax/Ossett!! Home from home almost. Our last call of the day was the Twelve Tellers, a Wetherspoon's establishment (was shut last time we were in Preston due to an electrical fault), Three B's Honey Bee and Flack's Romsey Gold were the last drinks of the day. All in all a great day around Preston with thanks to Adrian from Central Lancs CAMRA for showing us around – we will be back!!!!

Just as we got to the train station we noticed that our 1744 train back to Halifax was cancelled (about right) so we called into the Old Vic, just across the road from the station, where Nigel had a ginger beer and Carol had a beer from Beartown.

CAMRA CAMPAIGN FOR REAL ALE

MANCHESTER'S BEST BEER PUBS AND BARS

by Matthew Curtis

CAMRA Books £16.99

Don't be put off by the title, this is not just another pub guide to Manchester City Centre, Whilst pubs and bars in the city centre account for most of the entries, pubs across all Greater Manchester Boroughs are included with chapters covering Stockport and South Manchester; Salford and Trafford; Wigan Bolton and Bury; Rochdale Oldham and Stalybridge and the City Centre chapter covers the City Centre and immediate suburbs such as Ardwick, Ancoats, Oxford Road and the Universities.

It's a quality publication with full colour photographs throughout. It has clearly been well researched and even people who know the Manchester area beer scene well may discover something new. There's an interesting chapter covering a history of beer in Manchester including the four family breweries and the modern breweries that are now a great feature of the city. The How to use this Guide chapter contains a mine of useful information including transport information, brewery visits, beer festivals, the cider scene, accessibility info. and also, the categories used for the pub entries.

Each of the venues listed has been classified into one of ten different categories: Modern Pub, Traditional Pub, Bar, Club, Taproom, Restaurant, Food Hall, Bottle shop, Venue and Hotel. Within each entry symbols are used to signify cask beer, keg beer, a bottle list, real cider, and food.

The entries themselves are accompanied by a colour photograph and an informative description of the pub itself including contact details and address. It's not a Good Beer Guide and does not try to be, individual beers served are not included but are often referred to in the description. Each chapter contains a beer trail visiting a selection of pubs featured within that chapter.

What this book demonstrates is that when it comes to beer and pubs, Manchester really does have something for everyone, and I suspect there will be many drinkers who would be glad to find this guide in their Christmas stocking this year.

WHY NOT JOIN CAMRA....?

CAMRA was established in 1971 and so has recently celebrated 50 years of fighting to get better beer in pubs, and today CAMRA has grown into an organisation that champions the Great British Pub with a passion for real ales still at its heart.

CAMRA is an independent, voluntary organisation with over 154,000 members nationally and has been described as the most successful consumer group in Europe, so has quite a voice when needed and campaigning is what CAMRA does. From lobbying the Government to take action on business rates and local volunteers campaigning against possible pub closures, to supporting pubs and breweries through Covid and much has been achieved in the 50 years, not least a long term future for quality real ale and cider, which is now readily available across the UK, but there is much more to achieve with your help.

Membership in Huddersfield has mirrored the effects of Covid and now the economic situation and has gradually reduced over the last 2 years but we do hope that now Covid is perhaps past the worst and this will enable people to get out to pubs and restaurants and the fact that we are now again putting on social events and producing our all new colour Ale Talk magazine quarterly, we hope this will also encourage people to sign up and then get all the benefits of membership.

We aim to: Protect and improve consumer rights, promote quality, choice and value for money, support the public house as a focus of community life, campaign for greater appreciation of traditional beers, ciders and perries as part of our national heritage and culture and seek improvements in all licensed premises and throughout the brewing industry CAMRA Membership from 1 July 2023 costs £30.50 pa for single memberships, £38.50 joint at the same address or if under 26 is just £22. All these are for memberships paid by Direct Debit.

We look forward you to signing up for membership and you will then have full access to our site and get all the above benefits.

Shortly after signing up and getting the info from CAMRA Head Office you should receive an email from membership@huddscamra.org.uk as long as you agree to receive emails which we hope you will do so we can then also send out to you regular information about our activities.

Why our yeast needs to be locked up

You might well wonder why we lock away our yeast. Until you learn how important it is to the flavour of our beer. We use our own unique strain called, appropriately, Taylor's Taste. The properties of this particular yeast are vital to giving Landlord its deep and complex yet crisp and clean flavour. It's so valuable to us that every year two samples of Taylor's Taste are carefully transported to separate secret locations and stored securely under lock and key, just in case the precious yeast here at the brewery is ever compromised or damaged. It might seem over cautious, but it's all for that taste of Taylor's.

All for that taste of Taylor's
